CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 23rd November, 2004

P.C.

1. The affidavits filed by the respondents in both the petitions are taken on record.

2. The learned AGP states that the respondents have already complied with the orders passed in both the matters. The facts stated in the affidavits-in-reply are not disputed by the learned advocate for the petitioners. In view of the said statement that the orders have been complied with, there is no case for proceeding against the respondents for contempt of Court. Accordingly, the proceedings are dropped and disposed of. Notices stand discharged.
